

must have selected by Lodz Design - presentation must have is a vote in which a group of experts, including media representatives and representatives of important design centres in Poland and abroad, has selected the most interesting, attention-worthy projects of Polish design, reflecting current trends in our country. Out of 150 nominated objects, 42 have been selected which we recommend as examples of a wise and conscious strategy of investing in design. More...